

A Fall Through Time

By Jill Harper

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 240 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.0in. x 0.6in. This is an engaging story about a young man named Mr. Baron who in 19th century dress falls into the woods during a Summer camp. Two friends, Judith and Jane, discover him, dazed, and help him. In his journey through time, Mr. Baron has lost his memory. We learn about his story through a series of flashbacks and his diary, which he has with him and is read by the others in the camp. It seems Mr. Baron is a science student in a 19th century college, where he discovers a device that enables him to travel through time. His friends learn that he has the device and take it away for his own safety. His girlfriend, Mina, is in trouble and he must choose whether to give up the device, which is unreliable, or take it back from his friends to rescue her, risking both their lives. Later, at camp, he realizes that the rescue attempt has gone wrong and he has landed, far away from her, in another time. Since his arrival, strange things begin happening at the campsite. There are unexplained sightings and time-shifts...
