Excerpt: . . . inimical to the interest of the insuring public and the fire insurance companies. I would suggest to you that between now and January 1 a special effort be made to present the facts in regard to fire insurance to the members of the Legislature in order that they may be able to vote intelligently on the insurance bills that come before them. The field men can do a great deal of missionary work in this matter. which is so vital to the interest of all of us and I bespeak your active cooperation and support in getting the facts before the members of the Legislature. Happiness, says Dr. Kendrick C. Babcock, dean of the College of Liberal Arts, University of Illinois, is the consciousness that all our powers are working for good.
