This foreign carrying trade with one of their own colonies was naturally regarded with a jealous eye by the Netherlands, who were at that time not in the enjoyment of the treaty of reciprocity which Mr. Huskisson brought about. To the extent, therefore, of a few return-freights to Europe, and no further, did Java profit from the aid of British capital; whereas, had we admitted the sugar and coffee of the island at a fair duty, we should have insured a larger market for our manufactured goods, and have only hastened the crisis to which the West Indies under their unnatural system were tottering. A state-paper submitted to the States-General assembled at Brussels in 1825, shows the East Indian revenue and expenditure since the restoration...
