Indiana University Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Conversations with Great Teachers, Bill Smoot, In the spirit of "Studs Terkel's Working", Bill Smoot interviews master teachers in fields ranging from K-12 and higher education to the arts, trades and professions, sports, and politics. The result suggests a dinner party where the most fascinating teachers in America discuss their various styles as well as what makes their work meaningful to them. What is it that passes between the best teachers and their students to make learning happen? What does it take to teach fire-fighters to run in to burning buildings? Can the neurosurgeon's 'sense of surgery' be taught? What does it mean to teach or learn inside a prison? What are the keys to teaching the joys of literature, shooting a basketball, alligator wrestling, or how to survive one's first year in the U.S. Congress? Smoot's insightful questions elicit thought-provoking reflections about teaching as a calling and its aims, frustrations, and satisfactions.
