Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Husbands and wives, college students, blue collar workers and businesses are all crunching numbers to make every dollar count and trim fat for the monthly budget. Financial Planning Strategies is a must read book because it covers it all from the cradle to the grave. It has up-to-date options for investing and saving for college education as well as how and what to insure. It is an easy read for professionals and lay people; or young and for old. Make this a priority purchase before the day is over. Read and act for your own financial security. Many cringe over the mere word budget. If made correctly and with the suggestions in the book, you will soon find that a budget is your best friend. It is a map and accountability tool because it is the little leaks that can bring a family to financial ruin. If mom and dad make it a family affair, it is an amazing tool to teach kids the dos and don ts in regards to greenbacks. It is never too early to start saving for college and the earlier you start the cheaper it is. It is so much easier to lay away $10 or $20 a month than it is to carve out an extra $200 or $300 payment to a college fund when the child is already in middle school. College is more than deciding what subjects are appealing. A college education should be directly tuned into a desirable career or a plausible one. Investments can be tricky and risky or they can be safe and beneficial. Each person has to decide on how much risk he or she...
