Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Freshman Congressman Max Noble gave up his career as a magazine publisher to pursue a life of public service. A botched assassination attempt may have changed his mind. Having lost his wife in the melee, Max ponders his fate at home while the arrogant President Cole delivers his State of the Union address to a joint session of Congress attended by every cabinet member and federal official. But when a terrorist named Sultan, murders the speech s attendees on national television, Max s time to grieve for his slain wife is over. Sultan announces that he has taken control of the United States military facilities, including its nuclear arsenal, and that the once democratic United States of America will now be known as the Islamic States of America, governed by his new caliphate and its military. At the Pentagon, General Daniel Harmon, now the highest ranking American military official, determines that the only way to preserve the peace is for all American military and law enforcement personnel to submit to Sultan s rule. Max is placed in hiding by his top advisors, Bob Dalton and Jack Armstrong, knowing that as the only living elected official of the United States government, he is a prime target. Despite having no legitimate claim to the presidency under the Constitution, Max is determined to do what he must to restore freedom to the nation. With absolute power to implement his plan, Sultan begins to govern the former United States in a Taliban-like manner, instituting laws that men must wear beards and that women cannot work in the new, male-dominant society, and enforcing them with violence and a complete disregard for human rights....
