Letters from Jesus: A Study of the Seven Churches of Revelation

By MR Allan T Descheneau

Allan Descheneau, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Synopsis: Letters from Jesus is an exhilarating and informative journey through the geography, history and spiritual life of the cities and churches Jesus writes to in Revelation 2-3. Well organized, conversationally written and easy to understand for all levels of Christian maturity, this book invites to reader to walk with the letter carrier of the Roman Road and experience the cities as he visits them for the first time. Follow along as Pastor Allan carefully and passionately teaches through each letter, helping the reader to discover Jesus special love for the church and people in each location. Although these letters were delivered to specific churches almost two thousand years ago Pastor Allan draws very specific and helpful applications for today. Each church struggles with a different aspect of faith and obedience which are pertinent to every generation of believers. Like many Christians today, Ephesus, though appearing to be a healthy, busy and spiritually vibrant church, were lacking something at their core. They became distracted by many good, spiritual things, but had lost their love-connection to Jesus. How...
