Excerpt: . . . The Dominican Republic, the largest beneficiary of the Caribbean Basin Initiative program, does not belong to any regional trade association, but has increased cooperation with both Central America and CARICOM. There has been some discussion of a CARICOM-Dominican Republic trade agreement. Haiti, which is recovering from several years of political and economic difficulties, is focussing primarily on reviving its economy. Dominican Republic: The Dominican Republic is the tenth largest economy among the United States major export markets in the Latin American and Caribbean region, with a GDP GNP of 10. 1 billion in 1994. Shipments of U. S. merchandise to the Dominican Republic were valued at 3. 2 billion in 1996 and accounted for 44. 1 percent of the Dominican Republics total imports in 1995. The Dominican Republic has a market-determined exchange rate for most transactions. However, the Government of the Dominican Republic has taken no concrete steps to streamline the approval process for foreign investment or to lift restrictions on profit...
