T. NORTON. About two years since, whilst on board of one of the Connecticut River Steam Boats, I observed a young well dressed colored man, whose appearance and manners particularly attracted my attention. There wa3 something unusual in his whole bearing, and had a favorable opportunity offered, I should have made inquiries respecting him. We soon reached Hartford, however, and I thought no more of him. A few months after the above occurrence, whilst attending a meeting at the office of the Connecticut AntiSlavery Society in H, a respectable gentleman of that city came to the door, evidently in haste and somewhat agitated, and enquired for Mr. B. After a short absence Mr. B. returned, and stated that the gentleman who had called him out, was under great anxiety on account of a young colored man...
